

2011 marks 16 years since the Smith family purchased the Vogue Doll Company. It has been a fantastic 16 years and the opportunities and experiences have been invaluable. We thank all our friends and fellow doll lovers for your past and present support. Keep collecting!!

Linda & Dave

Alice Leverett

idea, each doll, and each costume in an effort to take her artistry to the next level.

The Vogue Doll Company, Inc. is pleased to announce artist Alice Leverett has accepted the position of Director of Design. Alice is an accomplished doll sculptor and seamstress, and her hand made studio fashion dolls and costumes are highly prized and sought after by collectors. The consummate professional, Alice is always pushing the envelope, developing, creating and thinking how to improve each

"Alice will be a tremendous asset to Vogue, and we are thrilled to have the opportunity to work with her. Alice's talents, expertise and attention to detail will help shape the look of Vogue Dolls into the future," said David Smith of Vogue Dolls. "Vogue has always been known as the Fashion Leader in Doll Society, and Alice is a perfect fit to continue and expand Vogue's product offerings," said Linda Smith.

The Vogue Doll Company

P.O. Box 756 - Oakdale, CA 95361
Phone: 209.848.0300 - Fax: 209.848.4423
www.voguedolls.com
info@VogueDolls.com

Ginny

©2011 The Vogue Doll Company, Inc. Ginny®, Vogue Dolls®, Vogue Dolls made with love®, Just Me®, Jill®, Waa leg®, and Crib Crowd®, are registered trademarks of the Vogue Doll Company, Inc.

Items and fabrics in this catalog are subject to change